HARD WORKING DANCERS PURSUING THEIR PASSION!

We are enormously proud of the dancers from PBS who are flourishing in their dance studies both away, and alongside their training with us.

Here's the latest wonderful news:

Morgan - has achieved a second year training with Royal Ballet School Associates.

Larissa - has been selected to study B-TEC level 3 in Dance alongside older students and with a very tough, professional-style, training schedule.

Isabel - has achieved a place at Central School of Ballet's Saturday school Florence - has extended her training with RISE, Bristol to join their dance company

Ottilie and Olivia - continue to train with Swindon Dance's Centre for Advanced Training on Saturdays.

Ellie & Alice - who have started undergraduate training this year - here's a little from them:

I'm half way through my first term at LIPA and I have just started working towards my first show at Christmas. I dance from 8am until 5pm daily studying ballet, jazz, contemporary, tap and commercial along with acting and singing. We regularly work with industry professionals in masterclasses which is always exciting - I've met some incredible and inspiring people. It's hard work but I'm loving every minute and am excited for what the future holds! - Ellie, Liverpool Institure of Performing Arts

I've survived half of my first semester at University studying a combined honours dance and psychology degree. I changed last minute from single honours psychology to a combined course with dance and it was the best decision I've ever made. I'm loving spending my days in the studio, having weekly workshops with industry professionals and growing in my own creative practise. I also successfully auditioned to join the Bath Spa Rapids, and will be competing in hiphop, jazz, pom and cheerleading early next year. Pound Ballet gave me strong foundations and I am loving pushing myself in different and contemporary styles. Balancing two subjects is hard work but I am enjoying the challenge! -Alice, Bath Spa University

We also haven't forgotten Ellie and Oskar who left us to take residence at Tring and Elmhurst. We hope they are still having a wonderful time.

The best of luck to you all for the year ahead!
